WITH YOU BESIDE ME.

WORDS BY RAYMOND A. BROWNE.

MUSIC BY BOB IRVING.

ARRANGED BY WILLIAM H. PENN.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE POST-DISPATCH
SUNDAY, NOV. 11, 1900.

SOL BLOOM PUBLISHER. WABASH AVE., CHICAGO.

WITH YOU BESIDE ME.

Words by
RAYMOND A. BROWNE.

Arr. by WM. H. PENN.
Music by BOB IRVING.

Moderato

mf

The skies of life _____ are of - ten cloud - ed ____ The roads of The wings of time _____ oft droop a - wea - ry ____ And days seem

p

fate _____ are hard to tread, ____ The future oft _____ in doubt is years _____ when friends are few, _____ There oft are times ____ when life seems

Copyright MDCCCXCIX by Sol. Bloom. International Copyright Secured.

shroud - ed _____ And bud - ding hopes _____ too oft are drear - y _____ If 'twere not for _____ some sweet-heart fled, _____ But with thy love _____ to bring the sun - shine _____ And smooth the true, _____ But ah! with thee, _____ life's worth the liv - ing _____ What need for

mf

paths _____ that I must know _____ I care not what _____ the mor-row more _____ than one true friend _____ If that one! thee _____ my own, my rit.

brings me _____ Con-tent am I, _____ ah, yes, 'tis so! _____
pre - cious! That's all I'd own _____ un - til the end. _____

rit.

With you beside me. 2.

With you be - side me, what need I care, If fic-kle

p

for - tune smiles else - where? I crave naught

poco.rit.

ad. lib.

but thy love di - vine, With you be -

poco accel.

f p rit.

side me the world is mine. mine.

1 2

dim e rit

With you beside me.